THE NEXT HUMANITY

Just Ask

Will I love you when we're older
Will I love you heart and mind
Will I love you with each passing day
While I love you for all time
In the evening, through the nighttime in the morning when you rise

Through the daylight, into night fall
I will love you all the time

Just ask
I'll show you the answer

Will I love you when you're wrong and Will I love you when I'm blind
Will I love you when we're sick and tired
Will I love you in all times

Through the good times through the bad times through the times when we won't know
When we're sad and when we're happy
In the times when it won't show

Just ask
I'll show you the answer

Meanwhile back on the concrete
Introspection ends
To be where I'm meant to be
As life intends

The treasure surrounds us
In this instance and eternal too
Contradicting consolation
None the less true

Oh, how it can make me cry

Oh, tears of grace falling while...

Running, running, running.... after life
