THE NEXT HUMANITY™

Silence

Silence is welcome
when the noisy day is done Silence is unwelcome upon losing a loved one

Silence is forceful in a settlement Silence is healing for my betterment

Silence dismisses thoughts G~D ever was gone at all There and then is the silence of being in awe

G~D is in between the notes that I sing
Holding music in time

G~D is in between the atoms in me
The unseen glue that binds G~D is in between you and I

Darkness is welcome
when flashing lights annoy Darkness is unwelcome if there's something to avoid

Darkness is shadows light of faith eclipsed by fear Darkness is eyes closed as you feel you're drawing near

G~D is in between the thoughts that I think Into action in time

G~D is in be-tween
the atoms in me
The unseen glue that binds

G~D is in between you and I

Everything infinitesimal and giant Being dark, light, loud and silent G~D is just, for seeing G~D is all of being

G~D is in between
the notes that I sing
Holding music in time

G~D is in between
G~D is in between you and I
