THE NEXT HUMANITY

Timeless

Grace a gift I am not deserving Midnight nurse brings a new dry gown
Fever sweat, burning chilled, but grateful
The trait of grace she's handing down

Mercy spared consequences to pay
Relieved by pardon, my sin exposed Christ has no condemnation for me only asks for eyes unclosed

Peace is like love, we know when in it
Far beyond surface calm to deep Longing to understand to keep it
Check my heart,
Take a breath before I speak

Grace, mercy, peace hold the fear at bay
Not as some magic wand waved above
Fend off the onslaught with these inner ways
In the battle we win with love

To know
Timeless is the grace
Timeless is the mercy
Timeless is the peace to live
for timeless love
Timeless of

Time, we measure amounts were given
As if quantity matters how Eons and nanosecond precision Fade away,
be timeless here and now

Timeless in our Grace
Timeless in our Mercy
Timeless in His peace to die
for timeless love

Live to be
Timeless of G-D

Timeless, Timeless in His Love
Timeless, Timeless in His Love
